

Living Relationship As You Truly Desire

A weekend workshop with Bunny Sjogren
And
Jane Mutti

May 21 (7-9:30 pm) & May 22 - 24 (10am-5 pm)

First time in Regina ...new approach

Want to live with passion and make a difference in your relationship? ...And in the world around you?

This workshop presents a radically new way of perceiving your universe and your relationship through the paradigm of oneness. Are you ready to cut through the false construct of duality to a world absent “judgement destroying intimacy”, to a world of intimacy and only good? Are you ready to live the fulfilling and satisfying relationship you truly desire? Your communication is your relationship. Are you ready for open, honest, and intimate communication? ...with someone exactly like you?
